"FIELD DAY" SUGGESTION MAKES A HIT.

Meeting of Presidents and Captains of Rough Rider Companies to Be Held Tuesday.

WEEMS CONSENTS TO SPEAK.

Cyclists Apply to Enter the Relay Race—A Good Athletic Programme Assured.

The suggestion voiced Saturday morning through the Intelligencer for the holding of a Republican Field Day on the state fair grounds on the afternoon of Saturday, Oct. 6 or 13, for the purpose of raising funds with which to equip the Rough Rider companies with uniforms in time for their appearance on October 18, when "Teddy" will be here, has been received with enthusiasm among young Republicans throughout the city, and if the affair can be arranged its success is beyond doubt.

A meeting of the presidents and captains of the several Rough Rider companies, suggested to be held Monday evening, is now slated to be held at the Intelligencer editorial rooms on Tuesday evening, owing to the fact that several of the companies will hold meetings of their own to-night. The Rough Rider companies of Clay, Clay-Union, Washington, Madison, Centre, Webster and Ritchie districts are earnestly requested to have their representatives on hand at to-morrow evening's meeting, as it is of the utmost importance, and upon its deliberations will depend the holding of the proposed Field Day.

The Intelligencer has written to President McKinley's secretary, Hon. George H. Cortelyou, outlining the proposed Field Day, including the feature of a relay of cyclists bringing from Canton to Wheeling a message to West Virginia Republicans from the President, and asking whether the President will consent to send the message. It is hoped to have Mr. Cortelyou's answer before Tuesday night, and in that event it will be read at the Field Day meeting that evening.

Mr. Jason C. Stamp, who will assist the Intelligencer in arranging the relay race, has already received several applications from wheelmen who are desirous of figuring in the relay. Nothing definite, of course, can be done until the President is heard from.

Hon. C. L. Weems, of St. Clairsville, than whom there is no public speaker Wheeling people delight more in hearing, has consented to make the principal Field Day address. His speech Friday night at Martin's Ferry is pronounced a masterpiece, his dissection and general tearing up of one William Jennings Bryan being especially strong.

If the Field Day is held on the date suggested, Saturday, Oct. 6 or 13, the athletic end of the programme will attract the best athletes of the High School, Cathedral High School and Linsly Institute, as well as many outside of these institutions.

DEPEW OR DOLLIVER

With National Chairman Hanna May Be Secured for a Great River-Front Rally at Bridgeport—Other Meetings in Belmont.

W. C. Bergundthal, chairman of the Belmont county Republican committee, was at the state headquarters recently, in conference about speakers for that county, Congressman Weaver, who is in charge of the speakers bureau assured him that he should have the best at the command of the state committee for the last ten days in October, and it is expected to have a grand general rally and demonstration for the whole river front at Bridgeport at some date after the 20th of October, in which all the clubs and everybody else interested are expected to turn out.

It may be that Senator Hanna will himself come and bring with him a distinguished orator such as Senator Depew or Senator Dolliver, but to get "Teddy" is marked off now that Wheeling has secured him. At that time it is intended to have Congressman J. J. Gill preside, and Congressman Dovenor present as a guest of his Ohio friends.

In the meantime smaller rallies with local speakers, like that of Hon. C. L. Weems at Martin's Ferry, will be held in various parts of the county. But there will be other big meetings. Congressman Brossius, of Pennsylvania, is at the disposal of the committee for October 5, and will be put at some point on the river front. Senator Foraker is wanted at half a dozen places and at Barnesville especially. An effort will be made to land him for a big meeting early next month, but he is in such demand in other states that he is making up his own itinerary, aiming to reach some of the counties he has never been in, but will also reach some where he has spoken before, and Belmont hopes to be favored.

Over-the-river Republicans are buckling on the armor for a lively campaign and the merry song of the glad hearts made by the McKinley prosperity that followed the opening of the mills and factories to the workmen of America rather than the mints to the silver of the world, will be sung from now until the polls close in November.

THE TRADES ASSEMBLY

Contributes $25 to the Relief of the Galveston Flood Sufferers and Transact Other Business.

The Ohio Valley Trades & Labor Assembly met yesterday and transacted business of a routine nature. Among other matters it was voted to contribute $25 to the Galveston flood sufferers. Several delegates to the International Tobacco Workers' convention were present and delivered brief addresses.

Matthew Greer was obligated as delegate to represent Prosperity Lodge No. 3, A. A. of I. S. & T. W. Credentials were received from Charles A. Eastman, D. Brodie and J. Larkin, of the tailors union, but as they were not present, they will not be obligated until the next meeting.

The chairman of the committee on organization reported that the tailors and the leather workers were organized and that the clerks' union was reorganized.

Delegate Sims moved that the sum of $25 be donated by the assembly to the Galveston flood sufferers. Gabriel Jackson moved to strike out $25 and insert $50. Mr. Sims said he first thought of the assembly appropriating $100, but that after talking to several of the delegates and finding the financial condition of the assembly he thought $25 was all they could stand and that they could not continue business after contributing such a sum. Mr. Sims' motion carried and the treasurer was instructed to wire a check for $25.

Delegate Dittmore then introduced four members of the National Association of Tobacco Workers and each made a brief address. Mr. Deroyle was the first speaker. He is a delegate from Canada and said as he had been traveling all day he was in no condition to make a speech. He would meet and talk with the members later in the week.

Mr. Althwart, of Detroit, was the next speaker introduced. He said that Detroit could nearly be called the city of trusts. His union there had a membership of 300. They fought the trusts to the bitter end and had them on the run.

Mr. Sullivan, of Cleveland, was the next speaker, and he was followed by Daniel Wallace, of Detroit. The tobacco union, he said, was young and needed the support of the various unions throughout the country. If organized labor gave them their support as they had promised they would flourish. He asked the assistance of the assembly in using only tobacco that had the blue label and said that they in turn would assist them at any time they needed their assistance.

Delegate Doyle moved that the striking anthracite miners of Pennsylvania be given their moral and financial support, if necessary. He explained and said that his idea in making the motion was to lend them encouragement, as he understood they were weakening. The motion was unanimously carried, after which the assembly adjourned to meet three weeks hence.

THE PATTERSON FUNERAL

At Havana—The Body Laid to Rest Temporarily in Colon Cemetery—To Be Brought to Wheeling Later.

The Havana (Cuba) Post gives the following account of the funeral of the late Andrew H. Patterson, of this city, whose death from yellow fever a few days ago, shocked the community:

The remains of Mr. Andrew Hollingsworth Patterson were laid to rest in Colon cemetery at 10 o'clock Sunday morning in the presence of his widow and a few of his most intimate friends, who acted as pallbearers, the Episcopal burial service being read by Rev. Mr. Sharpe. Later they will be transferred to their final resting place in the family burying ground in Wheeling, West Virginia.

Mr. Patterson was born on September 15th, 1845, and that dread scourge of Havana, yellow fever, claimed him as a victim at Las Animas hospital on his fifty-second birthday anniversary.

He came to Havana in December, 1898, at the time of the arrival of the army of occupation, and shortly thereafter entered the real estate business, where he made a wide and ever growing circle of friends. To know him was to love him. He was a gentleman of Virginia, one of the old school, whose open hospitality had endeared him to all who knew him.

Mr. Patterson was a grandson of General Chapline, of Revolutionary fame, and was entitled to membership in that honored order, the Society of the Cincinnati. His family was with him in Havana, residing at No. 54 Prado up to early August, when his daughters returned to their old home in West Virginia to spend the summer. Mrs. Patterson, however, remaining with her lamented husband in this city.

A large circle of friends of Mrs. Patterson and her daughters will sympathize deeply with them in their bereavement.
